

国際総合日本学ネットワーク特別企画
Global Japan Studies Special Event

The University of Tokyo & The University of Chicago
Joint Graduate Workshop & Faculty Roundtable

8:30-15:00, December 13, 2017 (Wed.)

First Meeting Room (3F)

Institute for Advanced Studies on Asia

The University of Tokyo

OPEN TO PUBLIC

8:30-11:30 GRADUATE WORKSHOP on Global Japan Studies

PANEL 1: FENG Naixi (UChicago) & Gukchin SONG (UTokyo)

Inhabiting Literary Beijing on the Eve of the Manchu Conquest

Between Desperado and 'Conductor of the Revolutionary Movement': Surveillance and Identity Negotiation on Interwar Pacific Liners

PANEL 2: Felix BORTHWICK (UTokyo) & KANAHAIRA Noriko (UChicago)

Searching for the Neoliberal Danchi: An Historical Investigation

Perceptions of Islam in the 1920s and 1930s Japan

PANEL 3: KIZUKI Nagisa (UTokyo) & Erin NEWTON (UChicago)

Regional, Ethnic or National Identity: The confused identification of Amamian

Mentality and Masculinity in Crisis: sickbed diaries in Japan, 1938-45

11:30-12:30 LUNCH

12:30-15:00 ROUNDTABLE: Three Perspectives on Japanese Studies

Professor James KETELAAR

Departments of History and East Asian Languages and Civilization, the Divinity
School, and the College, The University of Chicago

Professor SONODA Shigeto

Institute for Advanced Studies on Asia, The University of Tokyo

Professor NAKAJIMA Takahiro

Institute for Advanced Studies on Asia, The University of Tokyo